

TRANSFERRING DEGREE LEVEL

CONDITIONS

TRANSFERRING EQUIVALENT COURSES AND CREDITS OF A NEW STUDENT WHO HAS COMPLETED THE GRADUATE PROGRAMS OR WHO HAS BEEN A GRADUATE STUDENT

1. A student who has completed the graduate programs or who has been a graduate student at Chiang Mai University and is admitted to the new program, can request that courses and credits be transferred from his/her previous study programs if they were taken within five years, counting from the courses' registration, with the approval of the Graduate Program Executive Committee of the new degree program and the appropriate Graduate Education Executive Committee.
2. A student, who has completed the graduate programs or who has been a graduate student at other institutions, can request that courses and credits be transferred, subject to the judgment of the faculty accepting the student. The number of credits transferred may not exceed one-half of the total credits of coursework in the new program and the courses must have been taken within the last five years, with the approval of the Graduate Program Executive Committee and the appropriate Graduate Education Executive Committee.

CREDIT TRANSFER FROM (AN) OTHER INSTITUTION(S)

1. A Chiang Mai University graduate student, who registered for course(s) in (an) other institution(s) while holding Chiang Mai University student status, may request to transfer his/her credits of the course(s) studied at the other institution(s) to Chiang Mai University, if they are similar or related to the course(s) in the program at Chiang Mai University. Each request must be approved by the Graduate Program Executive Committee, the Graduate Education Executive Committee and the Graduate School.
2. Grade point values of the courses enrolled in (an) other institution(s) which will be calculated for the grade point average must be considered adjustable to the grade point system in accordance with the Chiang Mai University Regulations, by approval of the Graduate Program Executive Committee and the Graduate Education Executive Committee.